

To volunteer for any position within SBYBS you will need to have an account on sbybs.com. If you do not have an account, please create one on the website. For help with your account, please reach out to sblittleleaguevt@gmail.com. Registering to volunteer with the website streamlines the all the registration steps into one place and removes the need to physically transmit government id's.

1. Once your account is created, please login and select "Volunteer" on the left side.

2. You should be presented with the option to "Find Volunteer Roles".

10. Upon completion you should see that you are registered for your desired position.

Note: You will need a digitized version of your government issued id to complete the process for certain seasons. The website will provide guidance on the proper format and size for the digitized copy.

Abuse Awareness Training for Adults – New for the 2024 season, Little League now requires annually that all volunteers complete an Abuse Awareness Training provided by either USA Baseball or comparable training,

Here are steps to complete that requirement and help SBYBS to confirm completion.

1. Create an account on <https://usabdevelops.com/>
2. When your account is created associate it with South Burlington Little League;
